TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Payment of account

Paul Bourton Funeral Service operates a pricing policy in compliance with the Code Of Practice of the National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors, and the CMA regulations.

In addition to our charges, disbursements must be paid, which we pay on your behalf.
When the funeral arrangements are completed, you will be given a written estimate and detailed breakdown of all the charges incurred by the services you have requested. This estimate is an indication of the charges likely to be incurred based on the information and details we know at the time of writing. We reserve the right to make additional charges in light of new information, to ensure we can fulfil our services to you. On occasion, you may be asked to make an interim payment.

We ask for this contract and estimate to be signed as consent that you accept the charges and will be liable for payment of the full funeral account, once the invoice is issued following the service.

For Unattended services, we request that payment is made in full, prior to a date being set.

We reserve the right to add interest on all outstanding accounts at 2% per month on accounts that remain unpaid after 30 days and any legal and court costs incurred due to non-payment.

If, because of your circumstances, you have to make a claim for assistance from the Department of Work and Pensions, please note that stringent rules apply as the amount of help available. Please talk to us, in confidence, for guidance.

I sign to say I have read and understood these terms and conditions.

I acknowledge receipt of the estimate account and confirm these are in accordance with my instructions.
I accept responsibility for payment of the funeral account in the amount shown together with any additional costs incurred as a result of changes to my initial instructions.
